Tiny Advocate

Be prepared, be heard

A calm place for your child's IEP or 504 papers

I built Tiny Advocate for my own kid, after one too many meetings with papers everywhere and a racing heart. I wanted one place that keeps it all together, so I could walk in steady and leave with a plan. Now it's here for your family too.
— A Tiny's Mom

Keeps school records in one calm place. Papers, notes, and meetings, together and easy to find.

Tracks deadlines for every state. It counts days by your state's rules and can add the dates to your calendar.

Helps you prep for IEP meetings. Walk in with your notes, questions, and documents ready.

Private by design: no ads, and your records are never sold.
